Detail:

Cincinnati, OH – March 12th, 2008 – Xperianz, a professional consultancy providing on-demand business expertise, announces a distribution partnership with Compliance Content Management Solution provider, Conexus, LLC. The partnership enhances Xperianz' proficiency in helping clients reduce cost, manage risk, and leverage people, processes, and technology with the addition of the robust Conexus software solution. This unique combination will enable Xperianz' clients to electronically manage documentation, processes, and achieve regulatory compliance.

Xperianz serves clients in the areas of finance and accounting, operations, and technology by bringing proven, real-world expertise and best-in-class solutions to bear on business problems, initiatives, challenges, and changes. Xperianz' financial services include corporate governance, compliance & optimization, internal audit, and merger & acquisition support.

Based in Louisville, Kentucky, Conexus develops customizable Compliance Content Management Software solutions. Conexus, which means "to join or bring together", enables companies to connect back office and compliance functions to maximize productivity and lower costs. Their patent-pending solution enables continuous monitoring and auditing of processes, decreasing risk while driving higher shareholder valuation.

Jim Orms, COO of Conexus, states, "Conexus is very enthusiastic to launch the partnership with Xperianz. The combination of the Conexus product with Xperianz' expansive service portfolio equips Xperianz with a complete go-forward compliance solution that will reach beyond expert consultant services for future clients. In addition, our Compliance Content Management System is an absolute value-add for existing Xperianz clients looking to reduce compliance costs and drive productivity while increasing visibility to information. We are eager to work together to provide unmatched solutions which save valuable time and money for our clients."

"In this ever-changing regulatory environment," added Peter Scully, CEO of Xperianz, "we want to offer our clients the best solution for their situation. Many situations call for turn-key compliance management solutions, from documentation through audit, assisting clients with their business processes and helping prepare them for regulatory compliance measures. Our partnership with Conexus enables us to do just that. As compliance measures expand and are deemed mandatory for additional sectors, with our help, our clients will be fully prepared to comply.”

About Xperianz:
